Curriculum Details
Curriculum type : Local
Curriculum planning
Based on a "child-centred" approach, our comprehensive curriculum is designed to facilitate children's mental and physical development by providing real-life, sensory and interesting learning experiences and according to their respective stages of development, interest, abilities and needs.
We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.
Learning / Teaching approach & activities
Learning focuses on diversity, comprehensiveness and balance while underpinned by biliteracy and trilingualism which is implemented through our thematic instruction and project-based approaches, informed by the "brain based strategy" as a teaching strategy that include joint participation, cooperative learning, thinking proliferation and induction, etc.
Assessment of children's learning experiences
Establish personal learning record for each child, with continuous observation and recording of their learning effectiveness, which include all six categories in "Language", "Self and Society", "Nature and Living", "Physical Fitness and Health", "Arts and Creativity" and "Early Childhood Mathematics".
