Curriculum Details

Curriculum type : Local

Curriculum planning

Our curriculum includes the Chinese language, English language, general studies, singing, story, drawing, Putonghua, oral English, English pronunciation, computer studies, bible studies and moral education. Professional school social workers are employed to teach emotional lessons for L1 to K3 students.

We will follow the "Kindergarten Education Curriculum Guide" (2017) to plan curriculum. Children of nursery classes will not be asked to write, and there will not be mechanical copying exercises and drills on calculation.

Learning / Teaching approach & activities

"Integrated activity-based approach" and "project-based approach" are adopted.

Assessment of children's learning experiences

Teachers observe and assess students on regular basis. The reviews of students' learning are shared with parent at parents meetings held in each semester.
